2009 Print Plus Limited Access Subscriptions for Institutions

New for 2009:

Print Plus Limited Access subscribers may register 1 IP address or 1 username and password. This does not include proxy servers or wildcard IP addresses.

Please note: Both new and renewing customers will need to register their IP address or username and password for 2009.

Print Plus Limited Access subscriptions are intended for small organizations with a low number of relevant users in one location. The AMA site license offers broader access and more flexibility for your patrons. For more information about site licensing, please see pp. 24-25.
